¿Te llevas bien con tu familia?

Listen to the following excerpt where Luisa asks Francisco if he gets on well with his family:

(f) ¿Te llevas bien con tus padres, Francisco?

(m) Sí, me llevo bastante bien con mis padres, de vez en cuando discutimos, pero la mayor parte del tiempo nos llevamos bien.

(f) ¿Por qué discutes con tus padres?

(m) Me riñen cuando no hago mis deberes y cuando salgo hasta tarde con mis amigos.

(f) Ah. ¿Piensas que tus padres son bastante estrictos?

(m) Sí. Mis padres son muy estrictos, sin embargo, tengo que decir que los quiero.

(f) ¿Tienes hermanos o hermanas?

(m) Sí, tengo una hermana menor y un hermano mayor.

(f) ¿Te llevas bien con tus hermanos?

(m) Sí, me llevo muy bien con mi hermana ya que tenemos mucho en común y ella es muy simpática. Por otro lado, no me llevo bien con mi hermano nunca porque nos peleamos cada día y no tenemos una buena relación.

(f) ¿Tienes abuelos?

(m) Sí. Mis abuelos son muy agradables y generosos. Me llevo super bien con todos mis abuelos. Nunca hemos discutido sobre nada.

(f) ¿Y tus abuelos viven cerca de tí?

(m) Sí. Mis abuelos viven muy cerca de mí. Su casa está a tan sólo cinco minutos a pie y dos minutos en coche. Es muy útil vivir cerca de ellos porque puedo visitarlos con frecuencia y, además, pueden animarme a veces, cuando estoy triste.

(f) Bueno. ¿Tienes tíos y primos?

(m) Sí. Tengo un tío y una tía. También, tengo un primo menor. Me llevo mal con mis tíos y con mi primo porque ellos viven muy lejos y nunca me hablan. Además, me molestan mucho.

(f) Gracias, Francisco.

(m) De nada Luisa.
