

German Directed Writing

Total Marks – 20

Choose one of the following two scenarios.

SCENARIO 1: Learning

You have recently returned from doing a language course at a language school in Germany. You spent two weeks there. You decide to write about your experience in German to perfect your writing skills.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- Where you stayed in Germany and how you got there
- What the accommodation was like
- What activities you did at the language school
- What you thought of German culture
- How you got on with the teachers and students
- Whether or not you would recommend doing a language course to others

You should write approximately 150-180 words.

OR

SCENARIO 2: Culture

Last summer you went to youth camp in Germany. You spent one week there with some friends. You decide to write about your experience in German for the school website.

You must include the following information and you should try to add other relevant details:

- How you travelled to Germany and what the journey was like
- What you did at the youth camp on a daily basis
- What you liked best/least about the experience
- How you got on with your friends and other young people you met
- What you did on your final evening to celebrate the end of your trip
- Whether or not you would return to the camp next year

You should write approximately 150-180 words.

This was produced by Milla Hamilton of Language Learning Scotland Ltd.
©languagelearningscotland